

Fundraising

Survey findings

Some of the actions identified in the parish plan will require money to implement. We asked where this money should come from.

The majority of respondents preferred fundraising as the main source of funds for projects and many also favoured sponsorship and lottery funding. Some people (30%) found small council tax increases acceptable, but larger council tax increases were unpopular – only 3% in favour.

